

- Upon completion of remediation projects, Projects must be restore to existing conditions.
- Steps removed must be reconstructed back to existing conditions and built back to code.
- Foundations removed most be rebuilt back to existing and built so it structurally sound.
- In extreme cases we can evaluate structures so they are more structurally sound then before.